

Woodhurst Parish Plan Report 2009/10

Unfortunately the Parish Plan committee have met on very few occasions over the past year and although we have produced a 'final draft' questionnaire, which has been reviewed by the Parish Council (and I believe the PCC), there are some questions that are now out of date and a review is required. Hopefully the committee will be kick started again over the summer and the questionnaire can be issued this year.