Open Gardens

On 22nd June, We will be holding an open garden afternoon in the village. Our aim is to sell programmes at the Church which will allow visitors entry into a small number of Gardens around the village. Cream Teas will be served at Fullards Farm and with the Scarecrows keeping an eye on things around the village; it should attract a number of visitors.

If you would like to open your garden for 2 – 3 hours on 22nd June, please contact Andy Notman on 823797.

The Scarecrows are coming !!!

The Famous Woodhurst Scarecrow Festival

As always, scarecrows can be in any size, shape or costume. We have resisted the urge to have a themed Scarecrow Festival, as it's much better for villagers to let their imaginations run riot. In 2006, we had a huge mix of scarecrows on display including Spacemen, Pirates, Cricketers and Richard Money falling off of his ladder.

This year let's try and beat the 42 that we had last time!

Scarecrows should be put out from 14th June, with judging at some point during Feast Week (21st-28th June). The exact date will be announced once our judge has confirmed his availability.

Obviously, it would be better if all the Scarecrows were on show before the open gardens on 22nd June.

The Prize for best scarecrow will be announced and awarded at the 1940's Jazz night on 28th June.

For those who don't know, the winner receives a Trophy which was purchased in memory of David and Shona Comben who were tragically killed in 2005.
