

WOODHURST FEAST WEEK 2009

Saturday 13th June	Start of Woodhurst Scarecrow Festival	Join in by putting a scarecrow out in your garden or outside your house (you may get some ideas from the Gallery at www.woodhurst-cambs.com which has photos of scarecrows put out over the last few years) Categories:- Best Traditional, Most Humorous, Most Topical	Presentation of the prizes and the overall best scarecrow trophy to take place at the 1950's Night on 27th June. Please put your Scarecrows on display by 12 noon on Saturday 20th to qualify for voting during the Scarecrow Walk.
from Saturday 20th June	FEAST WEEK 100 (LUB	Tickets priced at £5 each are on sale from Nick Dowding (Tel: 823322)	Weekly draw for £5 prize will commence 27th June, final draw to be held 29th August for 1st prize £100; 2nd prize £50; 3rd prize £25
Sunday 21st June 10.30-4pm	St John's Feast Week Flowers & History Display	Church open from 2pm Saturday for dropping off your arrangement. Church open from 10.30 until 4pm on Sunday when the floral arrangements and an array of historic documents, newspaper reports and photos will be available to view	Everyone is invited to create a flower arrangement to decorate the Church along the theme of "Woodhurst Feast Week".
Sunday 21st June 10.30am	St John's Feast Week Service	St John's Church 10.30 am	Woodhurst Historian, Shirley Firth, will celebrate the rich history of our church covering the period 1220 to 2009
Sunday 21st June 2pm	SCARECROW WALK CREAM TEAS & GARDEN FETE	Stroll the mile around our wonderful Saxon ring village to look at all the scarecrows and cast your vote for the Best Scarecrow competition at Fullards Farm, South Street from 2pm Off road parking available adjacent to Pear Tree Cottage, South Street	Collect your voting form for various categories of Best Scarecrow from the Church or Cream Teas. Homemade Cakes & Scones, Plant Stall Raffle, Lotto Board, , Bric a Brac, Treasure Square Wet sponge throwing, Bash the Rat, Face Painting, Produce Stall
Thursday 25th June 4pm	(CHILDREN'S ART ATTACK	Village Hall, St John's Close, Woodhurst from 4pm	Painting fun for children at the Village Hall
Saturday 27th June 7pm	1950's Night with the OUSE VALLEY STOMPERS playing live 8.00-11.00pm Presentation of the Feast Week Scarecrow Trophy	at Manor Farm, Woodhurst Gates open from 7.00pm Licensed Bar Hog Roast 1950's Fancy Dress optional	Tickets (includes supper) Adult £12.00 each OAP £10.00 each Under 16's £7.50 each Family Ticket £32.00 (2 Adult, 2 U16) Available from Fullards Farm (01487 824356)

Events arranged by and proceeds to Woodhurst Village Hall Committee, St John the Baptist Church and Woodhurst in Bloom

The organisers accept no responsibility for any loss or damaged caused whilst attending the Feast Week events. Parents/Guardians are reminded that they are responsible for the supervision of their children at all times. For more details please see www.woodhurst-cambs.com