

Garden Competitions 2006

This summer, there will once again be a number of Garden Competitions promoted by Woodhurst In Bloom. These will be judged on 17th June as part of the Feast Week celebrations. There will also be extra children's competitions that will be judged at the end of the summer.

The Garden Competitions will be judged in the following categories, with prizes for each of the winners and runners-up.

Best Front Garden

Best View from the Gate

Best Container

In addition there will also be a children's competition judged on 17th June for the best Miniature Garden (planted in a seed tray or similar sized container). All Children's entries will receive a certificate and the winner will also receive a prize.

Entry to all of the above competitions is free, just fill in the application form at the bottom of the page.

The additional children's competitions will run from May Bank Holiday (29th) until August Bank Holiday, and will run in 3 Categories

Biggest Marrow	Marrow Seeds and a 'grow bag' will be provided to competition entrants
Tallest Sunflower	Sunflower seedlings will be provided to competition entrants
Prettiest Growbag Garden	A 'grow bag' and four flowering plants will be provided to entrants, but children are welcome to add plants of their own – but please ask Mum or Dad before digging them up from the garden!
Entry Fee for these competitions is £1 (for each competition) and prizes and certificates will be awarded.

Finally, the Famous Woodhurst Scarecrow Festival will run again this year, with a prize being awarded for the best one, so start thinking about YOUR entry. No entry fee or form is required; just put a scarecrow in your garden ready for judging on 17th June.

Please write your Name, Address and Telephone Number on the reverse of this slip and detach and return to ERIN HOUSE, CHURCH STREET. For children's entries, please also put their age.

Please tick the box(es) for the competition(s) you would like to enter
