

WOODHURST.—The Parish Clerk Squabble.
This exciting matter, which has been hanging over since April, 1870, seems now likely to be speedily terminated, the cause in the Queen's Bench, Stokes v. Wales, having been referred to the arbitration of Mr. Naylor, the barrister, and was heard on Wednesday, at the Corn Exchange, at St. Ives. It occupied the whole day. Mr. Ginn appeared for the plaintiff; Mr. Gaches for the defendant.—The course in the County Court, Wales v. Stokes, also referred to Mr. Naylor, will be heard this day in the School-room, at Woodhurst.
