

WOODHURST.

THE LATE MR. SANSOM.—The death took place on Friday, after a long illness, of Mr. Thomas Sansom, a partner in the firm of Sansom and Watson. Deceased, who was 64 years of age, had been ill for two years, and for nearly a year had been confined to his bed. He leaves a widow and one daughter. A native of Warboys, he had been at Woodhurst for 50 years, and when Mr. F. Reynolds retired from business some years ago, it was acquired by the present partners in the firm. Mr. Watson worshipped at the Particular Baptist Chapel, Warboys, and the funeral took place in the burial ground there on Tuesday. Mr. Freston officiated, and, besides the relatives, a large number of other sympathisers were present.
