

St. Ives and Woodhurst, Hunts.
Messrs. KING & SON

WILL Sell by Auction, at the Golden Lion Hotel, in St. Ives, Hunts., on MONDAY, the 28th of November, 1881, at Six for Seven o'clock in the evening (by direction of the Trustee for Sale under the will of the late J. L. Ekins, Esq.,) the following ESTATES.

LOT 1.—3a 2r. 0p. of Pasture LAND, in St. Ives Meadow, near the end of the lane leading to Holywell, and abutting upon the River Ouse, as now in the occupation of Messrs. Northropp. Copyhold of the Manor of Woodhurst.

LOT 2.—Five brick-built TENEMENTS and Shop, facing the street in Woodhurst (adjoining the residence of the late Mr. Ekins), in the several occupations of Wilson, Relton, and others, with the stable, open hovel, and yard at the back, occupied by W. Murden; and Three other Cottages, Garden, and Outbuildings near, occupied by John Wilson and others. Freehold.

LOT 3.—Six TENEMENTS with Workshop, Garden and Orchard, containing altogether about an acre, abutting northwardly on the street, south and east on land of the late Sir Henry Pelly's Trustees, and west of Mrs. D. A. Britten. Tenants: Feary, Seekings, and others. Copyhold of Woodhurst Manor.

Further particulars may be obtained on application to the Auctioneers, St. Ives, or to Messrs. WALLINGFORD, DAY, and WALLINGFORD, solicitors, St. Ives, Huntingdon, and Chatteris.