

WOODHURST.

Mr. Lee Bitten, of Warboys, and his choir, gave a service of song entitled "Faith Triumphant" in the Union Chapel on Tuesday.

MARRIED IN CHINA.—Miss Bessie Reynolds, fourth surviving daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Reynolds, who went to China as a medical missionary about four-and-a-half years ago, was married in Shanghai Cathedral on Tuesday, April 3rd, to Dr. A. G. Taylor, also a medical missionary in China. The bridesmaid was Miss Cameron, another missionary. Dr. Taylor, whose home is in Birmingham, joined the Mission in China eighteen months ago. Dr. and Mrs. Taylor have been designated to the Province of Kansu (N.W. China), where they will have charge of a hospital amongst the Chinese and Moslems.

WEDDING.—Greatest interest was manifested in the wedding, at St. John's, Woodhurst, on Wednesday, of Mr. Horace George Guyll, youngest son of Mr. W. Rhodes Guyll, of Wath, Ripon (Yorks.), and Miss Florence Ellen Macgregor Gurry, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ebenezer Gurry, of Harradine House, Woodhurst. The Rev. W. Place (curate-in-charge) officiated. Mr. Maurice Place was at the organ. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in her gown of white satin, with trimming of orange blossoms. She wore a veil with coronet fastened with orange blossoms, and carried a beautiful bouquet of arums. The bridesmaids were Miss Bernice Guyll (sister of the bridegroom), and Miss May Gurry (sister of the bride). The former was attired in beige crepe de chine, and hat and shoes to match, and the latter in salmon crepe de chine, and beige hat and shoes to match, and they carried bouquets of pink carnations and white tulips. The bridegroom's present to the bride was a gold wrist watch, and to the bridesmaids pearl necklaces. The bride's present to the bridegroom was a gold cigarette case. Mr. Dennis Guyll (brother of the bridegroom) was the best man. After the ceremony a reception was held in the Church room, and attended by fifty guests. The honeymoon is being spent at Cleethorpes, the bride going away in a navy blue costume with hat and shoes to match, and a stone marten fur. The bride and bridegroom were the recipients of a large number of valuable presents.
