

WOODHURST.

SITE.—At the meeting of St. Ives Rural District Council on Friday, the clerk (Mr. G. D. Day) reported that the district valuer had assessed the value of the land belonging to Mr. Gurry, which the council wished to acquire for a housing site, at £100 per acre. Plans were approved, and the question of obtaining tenders was referred to a committee.

WEDDING.—At the Parish Church, on Nov. 17th, Mr. John Robert Catchpole, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John Catchpole, of Coppingford, was married to Miss Agnes Lenord, of Hiam's Farm, St. Ives. The Rev. Place, of Woodhurst, officiated. The bride, who was given away by her brother (Mr. Arthur Lenord) carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The bridesmaid was a friend of the bride, and the best man Mr. James Arthur Catchpole (brother of the bridegroom). After the ceremony a family gathering was held at the home of the bride's brother, and about forty guests were entertained. A large number of useful presents were received.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE GURRY.—Mr. George Gurry, of Don Juan's Farm, Earls Colne, Essex, died on Sunday, November 18th, aged 64. He was the eldest son of Mr. Emanuel Gurry, of Woodhurst, and was for years a well-known farmer and horse dealer, and occupied the farm now owned by Mr. Robert Anderson, of Woodhurst. He leaves a widow, four sons and two daughters. The coffin was conveyed by motor hearse to Woodhurst, and the funeral took place here on November 21st. The service was conducted by the Rev. Place, assisted by the Vicar of Greenstead Green, in whose parish the deceased lived. Mr. Maurice Place was at the organ. The family mourners were Mrs. G. Gurry (widow), Mr. G. Gurry (son), Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gurry, jun. (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. W. Gurry (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. W. Clarke (daughter and son-in-law), Miss Elsie Gurry (daughter), Mrs. W. Kimpton, Somersham (sister), Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gurry (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. Eb. Gurry